The Honorable Michael S. Regan
Administrator
Environmental Protection Agency
1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20004

Dear Administrator Regan:

As part of the Committee on Oversight and Reform’s jurisdiction over federal inspectors general, we are writing to request information on your agency’s policies and procedures for interacting with inspectors general and cooperating with inspector general investigations.

The Inspector General Act of 1978 (IG Act) established the federal inspectors general as independent watchdogs tasked with improving the effectiveness and efficiency of the federal government and investigating allegations of waste, fraud, and abuse. The law provides broad access for inspectors general to conduct thorough investigations so that the agency and Congress—and by extension, the American people—are “fully and currently informed about problems and deficiencies.”¹ The IG Act provides that inspectors general are authorized to have:

[T]imely access to all records, reports, audits, reviews, documents, papers, recommendations, or other materials available to the applicable establishment which relate to the programs and operations with respect to which that Inspector General has responsibilities under this Act.²

The IG Act further provides that inspectors general have authority “to request such information or assistance as may be necessary for carrying out the duties and responsibilities provided by this Act from any Federal, State, or local governmental agency or unit thereof.”³

The Committee is considering legislation to update the authorities of inspectors general. To assist that effort and the Committee’s ongoing oversight of the functioning of federal inspectors general, please provide the following by April 14, 2021:

1. All documents related to current agency policies or procedures for cooperating with Inspector General requests for information, documents, interviews, testimony, or any other request, including any memoranda of understanding (MOUs) with the Office of Inspector General, regulations, policy guidance documents, legal memoranda, or other documents setting forth such policies or procedures, whether formal or informal; and
2. All operating documents related to whether investigations into employee or official misconduct or disciplinary matters are conducted by the Inspector General, by an internal affairs office, office of professional responsibility, or similar office within the agency, and/or by another entity, including any MOUs with the Office of Inspector General delineating or otherwise related to such responsibilities, regulations, policy guidance documents, legal memoranda, or other documents setting forth such policies or procedures, whether formal or informal.

The Committee on Oversight and Reform has jurisdiction over the Inspector General Act of 1978. The Committee is also the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate “any matter” at “any time” under House Rule X. An attachment to this letter provides additional instructions for responding to this request.

If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact Committee staff at (202) 225-5051. Thank you for your prompt attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Carolyn B. Maloney

9. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph(s) or request(s) in the Committee's letter to which the documents respond.
10. The fact that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents shall not be a basis to withhold any information.
11. The pendency of or potential for litigation shall not be a basis to withhold any information.
12. In accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(d), the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and any statutory exemptions to FOIA shall not be a basis for withholding any information.
13. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b)(9), the Privacy Act shall not be a basis for withholding information.
14. If compliance with the request cannot be made in full by the specified return date, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided along with any partial production.

17. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, produce all documents that would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.

18. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data, or information not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.
19. All documents shall be Bates-stamped sequentially and produced sequentially.

Upon completion of the production, submit a written certification, signed by you or your counsel, stating that: (1) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control that reasonably could contain responsive documents; and (2) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.
